Template Guidance

This template has been approved by the Office of Legal Services Coordination (OLSC).

The template must be completed by all non-corporate and corporate Commonwealth entities and returned to OLSC within 60 days after the end of the financial year (see s.11.1(da) and s.12.3(f) of the Legal Services Directions 2017). Further guidance in relation to expenditure reporting is set out in Guidance Note 3 (Compliance with the Directions) and Guidance Note 8 (Reporting of Legal Services Expenditure) and can be found at <www.ag.gov.au>.

Agencies that are exempt from reporting to AGD but participate in the WoAG Legal Services Panel must complete a Certificate of Compliance and Expenditure for Non-reporting Agency and provide it to AGD within 90 days after the end of the financial year.

Please return this form by uploading the Excel document to the Legal Services Panel Portal (Portal users only) or emailing a copy to LSER@ag.gov.au.

Expenditure is reported on an accrual basis, using your agencies financial records. No information will be drawn from the Legal Services Panel quarterly expenditure reports submitted by Legal Services Providers, due to the transitional period this financial year. All figures are to be GST exclusive and rounded to the nearest dollar.

In addition to completing this report, all non-corporate Commonwealth entities are required to publish their legal services expenditure for the previous year by 30 October. No format is specified for the publication, but most agencies publish the data in their annual report, or on their website.

Commentary

Please note the following matters in relation this report: The ACIC submitted a legal expenditure report to OLSC on 27 August 2020. In the report (and with prior consultation with OSLC on 3 August 2020) the ACIC advised that it was still waiting for invoices to be received from Sashi Maharaj QC for the period 19 June 2020 to 30 June 2020. Due to COVID-19 lockdown in Melbourne, Ms Maharaj had been unable to travel to her Chambers to complete them. On 28 September 2020, Ms Maharaj provided the remainder of her invoicing from 22 June 2020 to 30 June 2020, totalling $3,950. This report now reflects these additional costings and is the ACIC's final report.
