Dear s 22(1)(a)(ii)

On behalf of the NSW's contingent of the s 37(2)(b) I would like to thank you for your input into the world of firearms over the past few years. You brought a business-like professionalism to so many of the discussions, drawing, no doubt on your recent academic studies. As you've now experienced, the firearms portfolio is s 37(2)(b) you can copy these and put them in your CV if you want .. not that it sounds as though you need any help in this regard).

Your hosting and facilitating of the s 37(2)(b) s 37(2)(b) n showed not only your entertaining prowess but also your ability to bring a meeting to an end on time, for which we were all immensely grateful, and with great results.

On a personal note, thanks for your out-of-session phone calls, legislative and policy advice, and sanity checks.

Take care up there,

Good afternoon all

Maybe later today or tomorrow the ACIC will send your agency a spreadsheet of historical firearm s 37(2)(b)

As soon as I see that go to your generic agency email address we shall email you a copy direct to ensure you and your staff get it.

s 37(2)(b)

We are adding more records to the spreadsheet as time permits so there will in due course be another final lot emailed direct to you when complete.

Any queries please give me a call

Cheers

Dear s 22(1)(a)(ii)

It seems as though these promotions (or desertions) are happening far too regularly and I don't want to see them becoming a trend - although, clearly s 22(1)(a)(ii), you've always been a trend-setter.

On behalf of NSW and, probably on behalf of anyone who's ever had a sit down and a rollicking good laugh with s 22(1)(a)(ii) I would like to extend my sincere appreciation to s 22(1)(a)(ii) for her contribution to firearms management in Australia.

s 22(1)(a)(ii) experience as an advisor to the crime command and her extensive knowledge of the networks in policing, gave her strategic insight that she willingly shared with the s 22(1)(a)(ii) and, as a result, we were able to position issues and solutions so they were able to gain the most traction. Never underestimate a person who can shmooze as effectively as she can.

With s 37(2)(b), it is comforting to hear about our effectiveness, ability to reach consensus and to drive the national agenda. During s 22(1)(a)(ii) time, we have s 37(2)(b) These successes are a result of our collective influence and, sometimes, an extra bit of of that s 22(1)(a)(ii) Prompting'.

s 22(1)(a)(ii) best of luck in your future endeavours ... s 22(1)(a)(ii) won't know what's hit them.

Take care,

Georgina Gold
