

SNAPSHOT

The April 2023 collection covers around 55 per cent of Australia's population – about 14 million Australians

Capital city methylamphetamine, cocaine, MDMA, heroin and ketamine average consumption exceeded regional consumption.

Regional alcohol, nicotine, MDA, oxycodone, fentanyl and cannabis average consumption exceeded capital city consumption.

APRIL 2023 HIGHLIGHTS

RECORD HIGH

KETAMINE
regional and capital city (April)

Between December 2022 and April 2023, the population-weighted average capital city consumption of:

Between December 2022 and April 2023, the population-weighted average regional consumption of:

