

SNAPSHOT

The April 2024 collection covers around 56 per cent of Australia's population – about 14.2 million Australians.

Capital city cocaine, heroin, fentanyl and ketamine average consumption exceeded regional consumption.

Regional alcohol, nicotine, oxycodone, methylamphetamine, MDMA and cannabis average consumption exceeded capital city consumption.

APRIL AND JUNE 2024 HIGHLIGHTS

RECORD HIGHS

KETAMINE
capital city and regional (April)

RECORD LOWS

FENTANYL
regional (April)

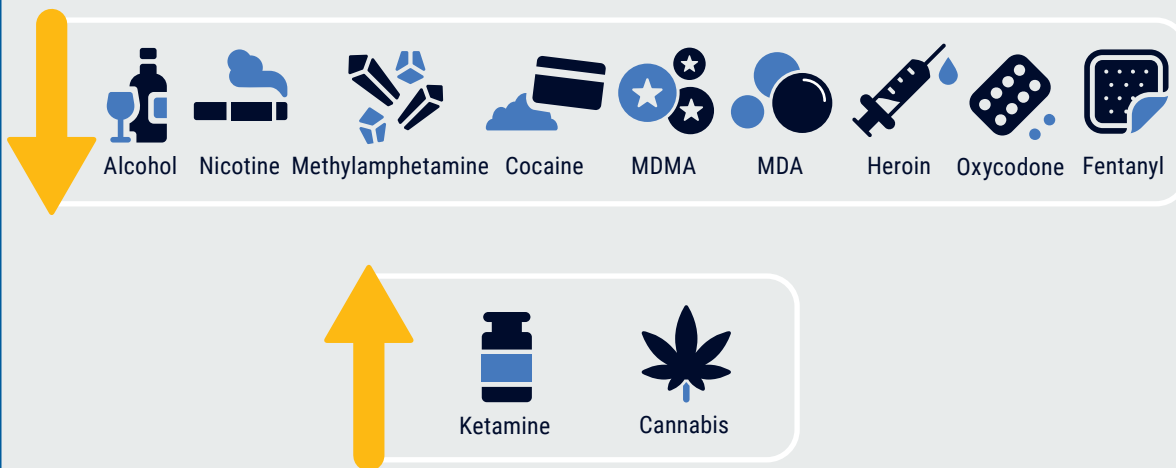

OXYCODONE
regional (April)

ALCOHOL
capital city (June)

Between December 2023 and April 2024, the population-weighted average capital city consumption of:

Between December 2023 and April 2024, the population-weighted average regional consumption of:

