

TOBACCO WARS AND ILLICIT VAPES

Illicit tobacco costs
Australia an estimated
$4 billion dollars
per year.

Since 2023, serious and organised crime groups have escalated efforts to control the black market in Australia, resulting in:

more than 200 fire bombings

at least 3 homicides
(including an innocent civilian)

multiple other non-fatal
violent attacks.